

HAVE YOUR VOICE HEARD!

CALLING PARENTS OF AUTISTIC CHILDREN AND YOUNG ADULTS

You are invited to join us in a research project by the Curtin Autism Research Group at Curtin University in Perth, WA.

If your autistic child is 5 years or over, we want to hear from you!

WHY PARTICIPATE?

- Contribute to valuable knowledge that aims to improve the life of autistic individuals
- Connect with other parents in a meaningful way
- Learn more about Relationships and Sexuality Education
- Help shape future policies and practices.

HOW TO GET INVOLVED:

Please contact the researcher Michaela Southby:

- scan QR code below,
- call 08 9266 1084, or
- email:

michaela.southby@student.curtin.edu.au

WHAT IS IT ABOUT?

We aim to understand your beliefs, knowledge and experience regarding Relationships and Sexuality Education for your autistic child. There are no right or wrong answers.

Your time will be compensated.

WHAT DO I HAVE TO DO?

- You will participate in a small focus group discussion with other parents.
- This could be in-person in Perth, or online.
- The sessions will explore your knowledge and attitudes to Relationships and Sexuality Education for your autistic child.
- The session will be recorded for audio.
- (An individual interview is possible too!)

HOW MUCH TIME WILL IT TAKE?

The focus group will take between 60 - 90 minutes. Prior to attending, we will send you an information sheet to read, and a consent form to sign. The session will take place before mid-2025.
